HOW TO GET TO KEW GARDENS

Travelling by car or coach

Kew Gardens is well signposted from all the major local roads. The South Circular (A205) passes the north-east corner of Kew Gardens and Kew Road (A307) forms the eastern border. If coming from the west on the M4 (leave at Junction 2) or A4 take the A205 to the right (at the major Chiswick roundabout (A4 / A406 / A205) and follow the A205 across the River Thames at Kew Bridge.

If coming from the North Circular or from London on the A4 take the A205 southwards at the same roundabout. Immediately over the bridge turn right into Kew Green and park on the roadside in a permitted place or head into our car park accessed via Ferry Lane on the river side of Kew Green. If you miss the turnings or parking is difficult, continue to the next traffic lights on the A205 and fork right onto the A307 - then park (from about 500m onwards, after 10 am) on the right-hand side of the road.

Coming from the south or west on the A316 or M3 motorway (which becomes the A316) turn left at the Richmond roundabout onto Kew Road (A307). You will see the Pagoda and flagpole to your left.

Coming from the south on the South Circular Road you will pass Kew Retail Park and go under a railway bridge. Shortly afterwards, you will arrive at traffic lights where the A307 joins from the left, go slowly through the junction and immediately turn left into Kew Green (NOT back left into the A307 - it is a "no left turn" junction!).

Parking for cars

Pay by Phone parking is available around the inside of Kew Green, close to Elizabeth Gate and will be operational Monday - Sunday 10am to 4.30pm with a maximum 4 hour stay and no return within 1 hour. Event Day parking will cover 10am to 11pm and be in place for Brentford stadium match days and other large scale events in the local area. Check Richmond council website for parking updates.

There is no parking allowed on Kew Road (A307): Check Richmond council website for parking updates.

There is a car park near the Brentford Gate, reached via Ferry Lane off Kew Green near the Elizabeth Gate. It will take about 300 cars. It costs £7.00 for a full day, throughout the year.

Please note the car park close half an hour after the Gardens close to the public.

Several dedicated parking bays are available for drivers displaying a blue badge, for whom parking is free at all times. Including three located directly outside of Elizabeth Gate.

Parking for coaches

Coaches are advised to arrive at Elizabeth Gate to drop off guests. Coaches are not allowed to park around Kew Green and must find their own parking in local area.

Travelling by bicycle

Bicycle racks are located just inside the Victoria Gate and outside Elizabeth Gate (near phone box), and they may also be fastened to railings in Brentford Gate car park. Bicycles, like cars, are always left at owners' risk, and are not permitted in the Gardens.

Travelling by bus

Several buses come directly to the Gardens or stop at either of the two nearby railway stations, Kew Bridge and Kew Gardens
